Geoff Emerick shares his amazing life story in Here, There, and Everywhere. This is a book that Beatle fans and those interested in recording will read again and again. Geoff revolutionized recording techniques when he took over from Norman Smith in 1966 as The Beatles chief recording engineer and worked on brilliant records like Revolver, Sergeant Pepper, and of course Abbey Road.

"Here, There and Everywhere" is a song by the English rock band the Beatles from their 1966 album Revolver. A love ballad, it was written by Paul McCartney and credited to Lennon-McCartney. McCartney includes it among his personal favourites of all the songs he has written. In 2000, Mojo ranked it 4th in the magazine's list of the greatest songs of all time. The Beatles recorded "Here, There and Everywhere" in June 1966, towards the end of the sessions for Revolver. Having recently ...

In Here, There and Everywhere he reveals the creative process of the band in the studio, and describes how he achieved the sounds on their most famous songs. Emerick also brings to light the personal dynamics of the band, from the relentless (and increasingly mean-spirited) competition between Lennon and McCartney to the infighting and frustration that eventually brought a bitter end to the
